

Enjoy a Day in Portage

TRIP ITINERARY

TRIP #25-1 MY OHIO FUN

LET'S GO

BREAKFAST Is it a restaurant? You may not be sure when you first pull into the parking lot and spot a replica Star Wars X-Wing Fighter sitting out front. But rest assured this family-owned restaurant has been serving locals, tourists and the Kent State college crowd since 1987.

STOP 1

MIKE'S PLACE
1700 S. Water St., Kent

MAIN STREET SHOPPING Spend the morning exploring the fun shops all around Downtown Kent, including Off the Wagon, "Popped", McKay Bricker Framing, City Bank Antiques, Red Letter Days, Last Exit Books, Hippy Fox Rocks, and more. On Saturday mornings make sure your stop at the Haymakers Farmers' Market.

STOP 2

DOWNTOWN KENT

LUNCH If you love burgers, a stop at Ray's Place in Downtown Kent is the place to go. Known for their famous "MOFO" Burger and fresh cut fries, this famous burger Michael Symon once yielded as the "best Burger he ever ate."

STOP 3

RAY'S PLACE
135 Franklin Ave., Kent

LEARN ABOUT FASHION You will be surprised by the collection of fashion at the Kent State Museum. Throughout the year the museum hosts special exhibits as well as a fashion history exhibit. Admission applies.

STOP 4

KENT STATE MUSEUM
515 Hiltop Dr., Kent

HEAD TO CHURCH Located in a refurbished historic church is Bell Tower Brewing Co. Even if you are not into breweries, the atmosphere and food are two other good reasons to experience this unique location. Make sure you try the pretzels!

STOP 5

BELL TOWER BREWING CO.
310 Park Ave., Kent

BEFORE YOU GO: Before heading-out check open times of each location.
